

Sun-Herald(Sydney)

Sunday 24/07/2016

Page: 8
Section: Inside Out
Region: Sydney, AU
Circulation: 196060
Type: Capital City Daily
Size: 605.00 sq.cms.

slice
CUT STRAIGHT TO YOUR NEWS

press clip

PARTIES & FASHION

08

BY AMY COOPER
ac@amycooper.id.au

WITCHERY SUMMER 16 SHOW:

Witchery's latest seasonal runway show was a visual feast. Models paraded at Carriageworks on a runway themed around the South Australian desert location for the brand's Run Wild SS16 campaign shoot. Food was on theme, with Lake Eyre salt and lemon myrtle macarons and Yorke Peninsula crab cornets for VIP guests including Anna Heinrich, Sarah Ellen, Phoebe Burgess and Pia Muehlenbeck.

THE DAILY EDITED X HAILEY

BALDWIN: She's the next generation of Hollywood's Baldwin dynasty, and model/designer Hailey Baldwin (daughter of Stephen) now has a Sydney connection with her own bag collection for local accessory label The Daily Edited. Fashionistas gathered for lunch at Potts Point's Missy French to admire the pieces with TDE's co-founder Alyce Tran.

SILKARI LAUNCH: The launch of new luxury property company Silkari drew a swathe of famous names, from Bob Hawke to Delta Goodrem, who performed a surprise set. More than 800 VIPs flocked to a glitzed-up Town Hall to help CEO Michael Guo celebrate his new ventures. Samantha Harris, Erin Holland and The Block's Darren Palmer also enjoyed the big bash.

LEVI'S 505C LAUNCH: Back in the '70s, the Levi's 505c was the rock'n'roll legwear, worn onstage by Debbie Harry and the Ramones. Now it's back, with a new band of fans including local rockers The Delta Riggs, Sticky Fingers, The Rubens and Harts, who all turned out in their denim to play music and party in a Waterloo warehouse space.

EAT STRONG PLAY STRONG: The launch of Charity Bounce's Eat Strong, Play Strong program for disadvantaged youth brought together celebrity chef Sean Connolly and NBL legend Cal Bruton at Waterloo Oval for a high-spirited cook-up and basketball clinic with young people from Redfern and Waterloo. Amid the fun, there was a serious message: eating well and staying healthy.

SYDNEY CRAFT BEER WEEK LAUNCH:

To launch the 2016 program, festival director Joel Connolly took brew fans on a travelling celebration from Surry Hills pub Keg & Brew to Newtown's Union Hotel. They're looking forward to 100 events at more than 75 venues.

EDINBURGH CASTLE RELAUNCH:

One of Sydney's most historic inner city pubs has a sleek new look by design gurus Luchetti Krelle, and foodies gathered to sample the new menu from head chef Daniel Lanza, the 100 per cent Aussie wine list and the pub's signature gin cocktails, Lawson's Cup and City Slick.

Sun-Herald(Sydney)

Sunday 24/07/2016

Page: 8
Section: Inside Out
Region: Sydney, AU
Circulation: 196060
Type: Capital City Daily
Size: 605.00 sq.cms.

slice
CUT STRAIGHT TO YOUR NEWS

press clip

Danny Clayton with Monte and Seamus Coyle at the LeviS 505c launch. Photo: James Adams

Phil O'Shea (left) and Nick O at the Craft Beer Week launch. Photo: Nicholas Chu

Left: Alyce Tran and Ksenija Lukich at the launch of The Daily Edited. Photo: Sevak Babakhani

Sun-Herald(Sydney)

Sunday 24/07/2016

Page: 8
Section: Inside Out
Region: Sydney, AU
Circulation: 196060
Type: Capital City Daily
Size: 605.00 sq.cms.

slice
CUT STRAIGHT TO YOUR NEWS

press clip

Right: Harriet Armstrong and Ella Dumbrell at the Edinburgh Castle relaunch. Photo: Luke Latty

Miranda Louey and Steve Merrett at the Silkari launch.

Left: Olivia Phyland at the Silkari launch.

Cal Bruton (left) and Sean Connolly (third from left) with Issy and Tommy at the Eat Strong Play Strong launch. Photo: Salty Dingo Media